

On Campus Parking

Freshmen students who live in the residence halls may purchase either a blue residence hall permit or a purple stadium permit.

Purple Stadium Permit

- This permit is valid at the football stadium and baseball overflow lots
- Stadium permits are sold on an academic year basis
- Price for the 2020-2021 school year is $100

Blue Residence Hall Lots

- These lots are located around campus near residence halls
- They are sold on a limited basis based on the number of spaces in the lot
- The price for these permits is
 - Fall Only - $150
 - Spring Only - $130
 - Fall/Spring - $200

Athletic Events

Football Season – To avoid being towed, you must move your vehicle from the stadium lots by 9p.m. the evening before a home football game. You may return it to the stadium lots two hours after the completion of the game.

Baseball Season – Parking in the baseball overflow lot during the spring baseball season is prohibited. Violators will be towed at the owner or operator's expense.

How to Request Your Permit

1. Go to <https://bsuparking.t2hosted.com/Account/Portal>
2. Log in with your Ball State username and password
3. Select “Purchase Permits”
4. Choose your permit and check out of your shopping basket

If you are on the premium plan, make sure you select Premium Plan as your payment method. Do not enter credit card or checking account information.*